

CHAITANYA ENGINEERING COLLEGE
Approved by AICTE, New Delhi, Affiliated to JNTU, Kakinada
Chaitanya Valley, Kommadi, Madhurawada, Visakhapatnam-48
NBA & NAAC Accredited

The institute continuously strives to foster academic and administrative standards overall development and success of all its stake holders

The geographical location of the institute makes it a perfect, safe, accessible educational environment in which students can attain their goals

It maintains a high standard of integrity and performance demonstrating professionalism, ethical conduct, and accountability in all the programs and services leading to the achievement of academic and career goals

Through its efficient administrative channels it always cares to instill critical thinking, effective communication, creativity, and cultural awareness and thus help both student and teaching community for their overall development in intellectual, personal, and professional growth

It critically analyzes and thoughtfully engage in conversations around current educational policies and tries to institutionalize the best practices that impact teaching and learning

It prepares students for the future team leadership roles they would assume in our global society

Empower students and staff to be responsible citizens of the country and contribute their share of knowledge contribute to their profession, community and society at large

It facilitates effective learning experience through faculty-student engagement, encourage experiential learning, cultivate the arts, and embrace latest technology - making every experience a learning opportunity